School's Out! Day Camp Program "Pirates & Parrots"

Friday, September 16

9am-3pm , $17/child

Complimentary Extended Care

Join us next Friday as we tackle the High Seas for epic adventures & exploration in the world of Pirating! We'll design our own costumes, meet feathered friends, enjoy swim time with our favorite Y Staff, and participate in a program sponsored by the Kendallville Public Library! Arrrrre you excited?!

This event is open to all East Noble K-6th grade students. Advance registration is required; financial assistance is available. For your convenience we will also offer complimentary extended care hours upon advance request of each family.

Spaces are limited so pack your back and register to set sail today!

Please contact the Youth & Family Services Department at 260.347.9322 x114 or via email at youthandfamily@colemca.net. If this will be your first School's Out! Day Camp Program of the 2011-2012 School year, please submit a brief release form as found on our website, www.colemca.net under the "Youth Development" Tab.
